100% Torbato

TASTING NOTES

The long period on the lees at the end of fermentation gives this brut an aristocratic bearing, a perlage of unmatched fineness and a surprisingly intense aromatic profile. The straw yellow color is bright and shining, while the aromas range vivaciously from acacia blossoms and pink grapefruit to noble yeasts and crusts of bread. A trail of iodine reverberates within a savory, fresh and balsamic palate with a creamy yet dry and vertical start. The aromatic nuances continue on, drawn by the acidity into
